With extended family living and entertaining spaces the welcoming hallway leads into the principle reception room with feature fireplace, wood burner and ornate ceiling tastefully decorated and styled creating a restful and inviting atmosphere – the perfect backdrop for your favourite objet d'art. The dining room with attractive wooden flooring has French doors to the garden and opens into a contemporary kitchen with ample cabinets, integrated appliances and solid wood worktop seamlessly flowing through to a cosy snug area with useful shower room/wc. The garage has been converted into a further reception room, playroom or home office and boasts dual aspect French doors leading to an enclosed courtyard area. To the first floor there are five bedrooms, one uniquely designed with ladder to a mezzanine level with vaulted ceiling and velux window, all serviced by a luxurious bathroom with separate shower cubicle. The rear bedrooms enjoy superb far reaching views towards Plymouth Sound and beyond.

The generous garden mainly laid to lawn features a decked area and verandah, a lovely space to enjoy the garden whatever the weather however the highlight of the garden is the bespoke super sized garden room designed and built by a timber frame design company creating the WOW factor with it's cedar clad facade. This tremendous space insulated and double glazed has endless possibilities and could be utilised as a studio, home gym, entertainment bar or even a home cinema

The front driveway boasting ample parking for several vehicles completes this tastefully presented family home. Featuring a quality finish throughout, ensuring that every corner reflects a high standard of craftsmanship and attention to detail, a viewing is most definitely recommended.
