DC Lane are delighted to present this one double bedroom ground floor apartment, ideally positioned in a central location just a short walk from parkland, local amenities and Plymouth University.

Set within a well maintained building, the property offers light filled and thoughtfully arranged accommodation. The spacious open plan living room and kitchen provides a versatile living space. A modern shower room, generous hallway with ample storage and a double bedroom with door access to the small communal courtyard complete the internal layout.

This apartment has been successfully let for many years, making it an excellent investment opportunity, while also appealing to first time buyers seeking a convenient and low maintenance home. Further benefits include no onward chain and a share of the freehold, enhancing both value and long term appeal.

Early viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate the location, presentation and potential this property has to offer.
